

MISSION REPORT #1

Agent Name Wendy

Date 8/1/13 Time of Day 9:30 am

Item(s) rolling thunder

Description of Item(s) The thunder started around 3:30 am.

Lightening was flashing nonstop. I imagined being in the middle of a battlefield.

Where I found the item(s) The thunder was all around.

What I was asking, doing, or thinking about recently that is related to finding the item(s):

Rolling thunder is a POW/MIA advocacy group.

I heard a story yesterday from a veteran who fought in the Middle East. Once he was sent out on a dangerous mission, supplied with bullets that turned out to be blanks (useless). Few soldiers returned alive from that mission, however, he was so blessed.

It's still thundering and not a morning for walking,

so I'll share a MENSA word play challenge: Mixed Up

STORIES. Find eight anagrams for the single word

STORIES. An anagram is a word or phrase made from another word by rearranging its letters.

See next page.

Mixed Up STORIES

There are eight anagrams for the word STORIES.
One of these anagrams is given as an example, because it is not a commonly known word.
Hints are provided to help solve the rest of this puzzle.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Sudden military attacks | SORTIES |
| 2. Oh, fight them off | _____ |
| 3. Makes an effort | _____ |
| 4. O, brother? NO! | _____ |
| 5. It hurts! | _____ |
| 6. Thus, I lay here. | _____ |
| 7. She comes to the rescue! | _____ |
| 8. Happiest (ending) | _____ |

Answers provided in the Storywalker Parent & Teacher Guide.